

Business (Statewide), Associate of Science

2026-2027 Catalog

Program Overview

The Associate of Science in Business degree provides students with a strong foundation in business, economics, finance, and law. Students learn how to analyze business and financial information, understand economic issues that impact local and global markets, and apply legal principles to business situations. This degree is designed for students planning to transfer to a four-year university to pursue a bachelor's degree in business or a related field. Graduates will develop the analytical, problem-solving, and decision-making skills needed for success in business and professional careers.
